

Kpop Sherlock

"There is a tremendous delicacy in preserving Holmes in other people's imaginations because there are a million different ways of seeing him. You try not to interfere with anybody's image." - Jeremy Brett

Beware I'm not Korean, the extent of my Kpop knowledge might be summed up with I've watched SHINee's video for their song "Sherlock (Clue + Note)" a few hundred times since it's 2012 release. What I have noticed as a recent trend, which I credit that iconic Kpop group SHINee's song for, is that many Kpop performers absolutely love dressing as Sherlock Holmes! The popularity in the far east of the Robert Downey Jr. 'Sherlock Holmes' films, and the Benedict Cumberbatch "Sherlock" series, definitely deserves much the credit for this phenomenon too.

I maintain an "A-Z List of Sherlock Holmes Performers" which records names and photos of all media appearances of people portraying Sherlock Holmes. The project originally began as entries of professional actors from stage, film, TV and radio. Then it expanded and the entries included school performers, cosplayers, models, advertisements, singers, dancers, internet streamers, fans, politicians, comedians, anime voice actors, etc., etc. It became an all inclusive list which let the viewers decide who was a Sherlock or not. The list, at the time of this writing, is approaching 9,000 entries with ~ 20,000 photos.

The following photos will simply present the Kpop performers that are a part of that monstrous A-Z collection. Like John H. Watson, I might be bad on dates and names, and believe me when I say I really struggle with Korean names particularly, so please understand that. Corrections and additions will be gladly accepted.
