H.A. Young

by that amusing one-act play,
THE NEW QUEEN'S.
 Lovers of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's works will find much to admire in the dramatised version of the well-known detective story, "The Speckled Band," being produced at the New Queen's. The piece is presented by C. W. Somerset and his company and it is admirably staged. The part of the Anglo-Indian doctor is well played by Mr. Somerset. H. A. Young as Sherlock Holmes achieves a great success, and Lionel Yeoman's Dr. Watson, and Miss Beryl Forbes' Enid Stonor, are also admirable presentations.
